KILLING OF MARSHAL AT SEGUNDO AROUSES BITTER FEELING IN STRIKE CAMP

Poses Search for Three Murderers, Illinois Federation
Loans Colorado Miners $100,000 to Be Used in Campaign

DENVER, Sept. 24.—The slaying of Robert Lee, camp marshal at Segundo, the maltreatment of John Hale, miner, of Walsenburg, who refused to strike; increased excitement among miners gathered in strike centers and proportionately increased vigilance on the part of local authorities to preserve peace; the establishment of more tent colonies for the strikers' families; and the announcement to fight from Illinois to the effect that the Illinois miners' union had voted $100,000 for the use of southern Colorado strikers, marked this, the second day, of the coal strike in District No. 16.

Lawyers and miners still are far apart in their respective estimates of the situation. While the strike call, while unbiased reports place the fluctuating figure at more than 80 per cent as striking. So far, according to reports received by state officials, here tonight, strikers have refused from imposing laborers into the strike zone.

Tonight, with the searching of the hills by lantern light in an attempt to find the perpetrator of the strike's one killing, also is in progress before the strike, which has continued for almost 48 hours without abatement.

Costs More to Dig Coal Than It Does
to Run Gold Mine

At the close of today's work eight tent colonies had been established by union officials. They were located at Walsenburg, Aguilar, Ladlow, Rugby, Sopris, Piedmont, Segundo and Torcia, and tonight are populated with about 1,000 people. According to reports received by state officials, there has been no instance of eviction from company property on the part of operators. Sheriff Graham of Trinidad is reported to have ordered the arrest of any mine guard who attempts to keep a striker from his home in the so-called closed camps.

The state administration is watching events of the strike diligently, and Governor Ammons is keeping a watchful eye upon the reports he has received almost hourly, and will continue to get from the strike district in an effort to carry out his announced determination that peace and order must prevail. At the first intimation of disorder at Segundo this afternoon, there were rumors that the militia would be ordered out, in view of Governor Ammons' previous statement that he would limit upon no blood being shed in the strike. But the executive stated to inquirers that he could not see sufficient reason for such drastic action in the death of the miner.

It is the force that is being put in the strike, which has continued for almost 48 hours without abatement. (Continued on Page Two)

COLORADO CAPITALISTS ARE PROMOTING BIG MERGER OF SUGAR INTERESTS IN 2 STATES

Deal on to Consolidate Grand Junction and Arizona Factories and Build a Third

Significance is attached to the presence in the city of J. R. McKinnle, P. J. Davis and E. C. Shafter, the Colorado capitalists now operating on the Pacific coast, and in this connection it is understood a larger development of the beet sugar industry in Colorado is planned. From unofficial sources it is learned that a deal is being negotiated having for its object consolidation of the Western Sugar and Land company with the Southwestern Sugar company, and the building of another beet sugar factory in Colorado.

The party arrived in Colorado Springs yesterday morning and reports the controlling interests in both the Colorado and Arizona Sugar companies. Since their arrival it is known that they, with other capitalists, have been holding conferences, and it is believed that the plan of consolidation has been agreed upon. The two companies represent a capitalization of $5,000,000 and with the plans under way to build an additional factory, it may be assumed that the merger will provide for an increased capitalization.

To introduce cane sugar.

In developing the industry in the west it is proposed to introduce cane sugar into Arizona, and in this connection it is understood that the Colorado men have been fully satisfied that the feasibility of cultivating

FOREIGN POLICY IS SETTLED

President Wilson Approves of Changes Relating to This Feature

WASHINGTON, Sept. 24.—The tariff bill conference today came to a final disagreement over the proposed tax on trades in cotton futures. It was found impossible to agree either upon the Clarke amendment, adopted by the senate, or the compromise known as the Smith-Lever-Burleson plan. After a conference at the White house, participated in by President Wilson, Senator Simmons and Representative Underwood, and a long debate in the conference committee, it was decided to report a disagreement to both houses of congress.

The conference report upon the balance of the tariff bill will be completely harmonious, when the measure gets back to the senate and house. It will be accompanied by a report that no agreement could be reached upon the so-called Clarke amendment, imposing a tax of 50 cents per bale on cotton sold for future delivery, but not delivered.

Compromise Plan Suggested
It was a little while ago that a compromise plan was suggested by Senator Simmons and Representative Underwood, and a long debate in the conference committee, it was decided to report a disagreement to both houses of congress.

Foreign Policy Settled.
As a result of the conference with President Wilson, the committee has settled finally today the foreign policy involved in the tariff bill. The most important developments were:

President Approves Changes.

ALBANY, N. Y., Sept. 24.—Governor Sulzer was free to use the $2,500 check given him by Jacob H. Schiff, a New York banker, in any way he chose. The banker so declared today on the witness stand at the impeachment trial of the governor. The designation of the check as a contribution to the governor's campaign fund, did not restrict its use to that purpose, Mr. Schiff said.

'TAX FLEET' TRAILS LOCAL TAX DODGERS

El Paso County May Force Collection of $100,000 in Back Taxes

After three months' work looking up the records of the county, Charles P. Fant, "tax ferret" expert of Indianapolis, employed by County Treasurer S. J. Bryan to hunt for the tax dodgers of El Paso county, has obtained information sufficient, it is said, to warrant the belief that $100,000 will be collected in back taxes. The taxes cover a period of 11 years, or since 1902, when the statute under which Bryan is working went into effect.

Fant has devoted the greater part of his time during the last 85 years in hunting tax dodgers and is an expert in his line. He has worked in scores of counties and a dozen states and has been exceptionally successful. Statement Expected Soon. Although the work is rapidly nearing completion, neither Bryan nor Fant will discuss it. It is expected that a public statement showing who has been found to have given false information as to their taxable property and to what amount will be issued within a few weeks. The work has been confined principally to estates and it is said that property amounting to hundreds of thousands of dollars has been found to have escaped taxation for the last 11 years. Under the law the county treasurer is permitted to employ special assistance in ferreting out unlisted property, 5 per cent of the tax collected going to the office to defray expenses.

"I discovered the law shortly after I took office," said Bryan yesterday, "and immediately conferred with the county attorney and county commissioners and was assured of the legal status of the case. I found the law had never been enforced and finally got into correspondence with Mr. Fant, who had been recommended to me. Three months ago I secured his services and the work thus far has satisfied me that the course I took was the proper one to follow."

Building Better System. The object of the work is not merely to make examples of individual cases, but to effect a more systematic and equitable way of collecting taxes. Illustrating his point, Mr. Fant explained that in some cases a man who had been in the county for 10 years had never paid taxes, while in other cases a man who had been in the county for 10 years had paid taxes for 10 years.

Asks $7,500 Damages For Fractured Nose. The city was yesterday notified that Frank Drummer, alias damages of $7,500 as a result of injuries received August 24, when he fell at the southeast corner of Tejon street and Pike's Peak avenue and injured his nose on one of the iron spikes protruding from a railing in front of the El Paso bank building. Drummer alleges that the railing furnishes an objection for which the city is responsible. The notice reads that one of the spikes penetrated his nose, breaking the bridge and impairing his sight.

Both the city and county falls now hold suspects who, the authorities allege, may have been connected with the murder of Samuel E. Marks, a Rock Island conductor, who was killed near Limon last Sunday morning. Jack Coffin, who was arrested by the police Monday, is the latest addition to the list of suspects.

Coffin was arrested by detectives, who say that he was intoxicated and talking about the murder. Coffin is a typical tramp. When questioned by a Gazette reporter yesterday, he said that at the time of the murder he was at Burlington, Colo. He told the police, Monday, that he was in that town, and asked that his statements be verified by wiring there. The telegram was sent, but none in Burlington knew of such a man as Coffin.

Coffin answers the general description of the murderer. According to the arresting officers, he changed his clothing Monday morning at a Hudson street pawn shop and donned a pair of new shoes, in place of an old pair. One of the old shoes was broken according to the pawnbroker, but which shoe it was is not known. The murderer's description includes information that the left shoe was broken across the sole. Coffin will be held in the city jail until Brakeman Norman Reed comes to try to identify him. James Doyle, the man who occupies a berth at the county jail under the same suspicion, is still being investigated. He told the district attorney that he was at Salida at the time of the murder, and Salida is being communicated with in an effort to verify this statement.

Police Looking For Suitcase 'Borrower'

The police are looking for a man who seems to have spent years in learning how to steal a suit case. The man, results show, has certainly learned how. The Kennebec lodge house is the latest loser, the proprietor reporting the matter to the police yesterday morning. The thief's plan is this: He goes to a house and asks to be shown a room. He professes that he wants to rent a room for some length of time. Finally after due consideration, he decides upon a room and promises to move in immediately. He does not pay any money in advance. Then when he is on the point of leaving for his baggage, he remembers that his suit case will not hold all of his belongings. "Could you lend me a suit case with which to carry a part of my clothes here?" he asks the proprietor. Several persons have done so and an equal number have waited in vain for the return of the new roomer and the borrowed article. The police suggest that in circumstances such as described, it might be well to notify them if possible, while the man is still at the house.

OFFICERS INDOKED FOR FEDERATION OF LABOR

Following a recent ruling, which provides that six organizations may nominate a candidate, after which they are elected by referendum vote, instead of in convention as was the practice formerly, the Trades assembly of this city has unanimously endorsed the following for officers of the Colorado State Federation of Labor:

For president, J. K. Badley, Colorado Springs; vice president, Beasie Miller, of Denver and J. Hutton of Grand Junction; secretary-treasurer, W. D. Hickey of Denver.

The last regular meeting of the Trades Assembly also went on record as endorsing unanimously the stand taken by State Labor Commissioner E. V. Burke with reference to arbitration of the trouble between the coal miners and the operators. The feeling was general that there should be a compulsory arbitration law.

A resolution also adopted unanimously called upon the Stratton estate to show enough favoritism to let the contractors for its new building at the corner of Tejon and Huachuca streets to a Colorado Springs contractor.

FIRST SNOW YESTERDAY

WOULD WORK ON NEW AUTO ROAD AT ONCE

Roads Enthusiasts Approve Plans for Colorado-to-Gulf Highway

Enthusiastically pledging themselves to immediately construct in the most approved manner those sections of the Colorado-to-Gulf highway, which traverse their counties, representatives of the various counties on the new route in Colorado and New Mexico met yesterday afternoon in Pueblo to further the interests of the road and to participate in the Good Roads convention, being held in the southern Colorado city.

Great interest was manifested in the new North-South highway, not only by those directly interested in the association building the road, but by roads enthusiasts from every part of the state. Many expressed the opinion that the completion of the highway will mean greatly increased tourist travel to Colorado's scenic points and will add to the already good name the state has as a touring section.

Would Start Work Soon. Everyone seemed anxious to have the highway completed during the winter so that it might be opened for traffic next spring. Representatives of the counties through which the road passes expressed themselves as willing to pledge funds to construct the new road through their respective territory. Colorado Springs delegates attending the meeting were E. A. Swenson, Louis Carpenter, W. E. Larrabee and A. W. Henderson. Henderson was elected secretary of the Rocky Mountain division of the Colorado-to-Gulf association.

Congressman Edward Keating, at yesterday afternoon's meeting of the roads convention, asked the association to endorse a plan for asking the government to set aside 1,000,000 acres of public lands in each state to establish a roads fund for the various states. The matter will be taken up for final consideration this afternoon and probably will be endorsed.

Dodge to Lap Sunset Route. John P. Dodge of the Automobile Club, arrived in Pueblo yesterday morning to attend the convention and prepare to start on his trip to log the Sunset route. The road starts at Pueblo, and traverses the San Luis valley to the Grand Canyon of the Colorado, returning by way of New Mexico. Dodge will leave Pueblo this morning and expects to be on the trip for at least a month. Upon his return to Pueblo he will come to Colorado Springs for a stay of several days.

Colorado Springs was selected as the final meeting place of the Rocky Mountain division of the Colorado-to-Gulf Highway association at yesterday's meeting. The session will be held next January.

ATTORNEYS FOR MIDWEST COMPANY SUBMIT BRIEFS

Claim Act of Withdrawing Lands Was Illegal—Hearing to Be Held in Denver Next Tuesday.

Challenging the purpose of the president's withdrawal of Wyoming oil lands September 28, 1910, was to deprive citizens of rights under existing statutes, until congress could make a change and pass new and different laws bearing on the lands, attorneys for the Midwest oil company have filed a brief with the United States court of appeals in the case brought by the government to recover title to 150 acres of land in Natrona county, Wyoming. The order was a suspension of existing laws, the attorneys allege, and could not be done except by congress. The claim of the government that the land was wanted for naval purposes was a mere "pretext" according to the brief. The document points out that the government has been in the habit of buying such supplies on the market and that the policy of refraining from producing them from its own lands has been continued for more than a century. The withdrawal of lands for such purpose requires a legislative change.

THE STAGE

"STOP THIEF"

It is generally conceded that to exercise one's noble inclinations laughable pastimes practiced by us mortals, hence the title phrase: "Laugh and grow fat," and that is why the majority of plays produced on the American stage are comedies or farces.

Recently farce has forged ahead in the favor of the fun-loving folk of this land of liberty, and particularly farce that is woven around the doings of the underworld. One of the most successful of these is entitled "Stop Thief," produced by Cohan & Harris at the Gaiety theater, New York, last season. Which ran for six months in Gotham, playing to all the theater could hold at every performance during that time.

"Stop Thief," is from the pen of Carlyle Moore, and when you see it you'll start giggling two minutes after the curtain goes up on act I, and from that time on you'll be apologizing to your next neighbor for your hilarious behavior.

But to get back to the plot. The illusion of "Stop Thief" is absolutely perfect, so much so that half the audience viewing it unconsciously feel for their valuables, while the other half think of calling for the police, and when any play for any sort creates that illusion the chief aim of dramatic art is attained.

"Stop Thief," will make you laugh in spite of yourself. Its unusual situations and brilliant lines fairly bristle with wit and repartee, while the complications that surround the aforesaid Rhode Island detective in his endeavor to trap the two crooks, and the distress of the kleptomaniacs, who are obsessed with the belief that they are the guilty ones, furnishes side-splitting moments sufficient to keep an audience in continuous paroxysms of mirth.

"THE BIRD OF PARADISE"

Our playwrights, waiting their menses to foreign shores, usually draw very extensively upon their imagination.

tion of Pacific Movement upon every topic pertaining to Hawaii, its people and its invaders, both commercial and religious.

The love story of Paul Wilson and Luana, the pathetically lovely savage of Pele, deserves to—and probably will be—permeated. It is a great, moving, human story, simply, swiftly and entrancingly told, without halt or interruption, without side issues or departure from the main subject, and apparently without effort.

The decadence of Wilson under this tropical love, this life of perpetual tomorrow, an effortless life, a life full of dreams and devoid of action, is a study which in technique, skill and enchanting interest equals the character painting of any European dramatist of modern times. Withal Mr. Tully has woven much bright comedy, the relief of several highly human characters, and the genuinely novel, music and dancing of a troupe of Hawaiian Hula dancers into the plot and action.

The cast which Mr. Morosco has produced is of extraordinary effectiveness, and is headed by Miss Lenore Ulrich,

When so many lawless citizens of Colorado Springs testify to benefit derived from Doan's Kidney Pills, can you doubt the evidence? The proof is not far away—it is almost at your door. Read what a resident of Colorado Springs says about Doan's Kidney Pills. "Can you demand more convincing testimony?"

Mrs. Anne Nelson, 1111 Washington Ave., Colorado Springs, Colo., says: "I was very bad with pains caused by disordered kidneys for many years. My back ached and was lame and stiff. There was soreness in my hips and my sight was affected. The secretions from my kidneys bothered me. I finally used Doan's Kidney Pills and they gave me quick relief. Whenever I have taken them since, benefit has followed. Doan's Kidney Pills deserve the praise I gave them in the statement given before."

STEAMER GOES AGROUND IN ST. LAWRENCE RIVER

MONTREAL, Sept. 24.—The steamship Mount Temple of the Canadian Pacific railway service between this port and London ran ashore in the St. Lawrence river off Mataneville today, shortly after starting on her voyage to London.

The accident occurred in a fog and it was reported that the vessel was badly damaged.

WELFARE COMMISSION TO FIX WOMAN'S PAY

PORTLAND, Ore., Sept. 24.—The industrial welfare commission of Oregon has adopted a ruling, made public today, which will become a law November 23, fixing a minimum wage of $8.25 a week for adult women clerks who are not apprentices, during eight hours and 20 minutes as the maximum day's work and 50 hours as the maximum for the week, and making 4 p. m. the latest hour at which any woman may be employed on any day of the year in a mercantile establishment.

The order automatically eliminates Saturday night shopping and Christmas holidays night shopping in such establishments. Some department store proprietors protested vigorously but in vain. One department store owner typed from the ruling and defended it warmly.

D. & R. G. GETS CONTROL RIO GRANDE JUNCTION

DENVER, Sept. 24.—Judge J. A. Riner, in the United States district court at Cheyenne, today handed down an opinion sustaining the sale of 7,771 shares of stock in the Rio Grande Junction railway to the Denver & Rio Grande. The effect of the decision is to give the Denver & Rio Grande exclusive control of the Rio Grande Junction, a line hitherto used by the Rio Grande and the Midland jointly from New Castle to Grand Junction, Colo.

The suit was brought by the Central Trust company of New York, trustee for bonds of the Colorado Midland, against the Colorado Midland, the Denver & Rio Grande, the Rio Grande Junction and George J. Gould.

The complainant corporation alleged that the sale of the Rio Grande Junction stock to the Denver & Rio Grande, after the Colorado Midland had defaulted in the payment of a $480,000 loan for which the Rio Grande Junction stock had been deposited as collateral security, was invalid.

TOPEKA, Kan., Sept. 24.—Investigation of the wreck on the Chicago, Rock Island & Pacific railroad near Manhattan, Kan., last Saturday, in which nearly 40 persons were injured, was begun by the Kansas public utilities commission, when Henderson Heilts, chairman of the commission, summoned a number of Rock Island officials and several of the passengers on the wrecked train to appear before the commission next Saturday.

The train wrecked was number 40, a fast train between Denver and St. Louis. It left the rails on a curve and several of the coaches rolled down an embankment. It was said that steel cars prevented a heavy death list.

ADENOIDS ARE A MENACE TO CHILDREN

Babies and young children must be carefully watched for the growth of adenoids, which spoil the mental and physical life of a child. They usually result from a succession of colds and throat irritations, and their presence is so productive of harm, that many a fastidious parent has an examining physician to detect them. The conditions that cause them may be easily avoided by careful parents. Quickly and thoroughly cure all colds and throat irritations by the use of Foley's Honey and Tar Compound, and adenoids will not develop. Robinson Drug Co., Adv.

WOULD COMPEL CONGRESS TO GIVE WOMEN BALLOT

WASHINGTON, Sept. 24.—A determined effort to compel congress to act on the proposed amendment to the constitution which would give nationwide votes for women is to be made during the week of the convention here beginning December 1, of the National American Woman Suffrage Association.

Arrangements for the convention have been completed. It was announced today, and include speeches by Dr. Anna Howard Shaw, president of the association, who will be the principal speaker at the opening meeting, by Judge Julian Mack, formerly of the Chicago juvenile court, who will speak of woman's relation to the law.

SUPPOSED IMBECILE GIRL FOUND TO BE ONLY DEAD

HEATHRICE, Neb., Sept. 24.—Katie Cornelius, aged 9, and for six years a inmate of the state feeble-minded institution here, was today taken to the state school for the deaf at Omaha. Examination of the child proved the instead of being an imbecile, she was perfectly normal except for the defect in her hearing. The little girl was sent here six years ago from Hastings, Neb. and not until the child was placed in charge of Dr. East of St. Joseph, Mo. was her ailment discovered.

The crooks steal for "keeps" and blame it on the kleptomaniacs. Can't you imagine the fun that can be extracted from a piece offering the possibilities that are bound to occur under these circumstances?

Of course there is a detective in "Stop Thief," and he is the funniest sleuth you ever saw. He prides himself on the fact that he is a thief himself in the state of Rhode Island. Five minutes after he meets the crooks he mislaid his own watch. (Yes, the Rhode Island "bull" is a scream.)

THE COMMONWEALTH MALE QUARTET OF BOSTON

Since its organization in 1901, the Commonwealth quartet has steadily advanced both in popularity and in the "quality" of its musical selections and ensemble work. Until today it has gained the reputation of being one of the best singing companies before the public, and because of its talented personnel and ability to present a most varied program has earned throughout the country the title of "the quartet that entertains" and has been acknowledged by press and concert committees generally as "the most versatile male quartet now engaged in concert work."

This quartet opens the Y. M. C. A. four course at the Bunk October 2, and will be followed in November by Ole Thorsbald, the great violinist. All subscribers should get their tickets at once at the Y. M. C. A. as the reserved seat sale occurs next Monday night at the Y. M. C. A. at 7:30 o'clock. See list of talent in another column.

Disposal of Garbage

Entirely up to City

At a meeting of the city council yesterday, the disposal of garbage in Colorado Springs was discussed. The session was attended by a large number of citizens interested in the problem. Prior to the meeting, the council had received an opinion from the assistant city attorney regarding the rights of the city in the regulation of garbage collection and disposal in which Judge Dillon of New York, considered an authority on such questions, was quoted and sustained by decisions cited, to the effect that the city has practically absolute power in the matter.

The council also received a communication from the Civic League calling attention to its report on garbage, presented November 1, 1912, and urging that the suggestions contained in that report be carried out. In addition there was a communication from the chamber of commerce urging that no contract for the disposal of garbage be made for a period of more than two years at the earliest possible time, a sanitary engineer be appointed to study the conditions in Colorado Springs.

The city health officer is urging that if a new contract is made providing for the collection of the garbage by private parties, as at present, a stipulation that the garbage be sterilized before it is fed to swine, be included. Final decision in the matter has not been made.

After much discussion, the council went on record in favor of the scheme of the Denver Motor club for an enduring run through Colorado next spring. It is the plan for the various cities about the state to contribute for prizes for the winners of the contest. It is argued that as a result of the run, motorists will become acquainted with the advantages of Colorado for automobile touring.

Prior to the meeting, the council had received an opinion from the assistant city attorney regarding the rights of the city in the regulation of garbage collection and disposal in which Judge Dillon of New York, considered an authority on such questions, was quoted and sustained by decisions cited, to the effect that the city has practically absolute power in the matter.

The council also received a communication from the Civic League calling attention to its report on garbage, presented November 1, 1912, and urging that the suggestions contained in that report be carried out. In addition there was a communication from the chamber of commerce urging that no contract for the disposal of garbage be made for a period of more than two years at the earliest possible time, a sanitary engineer be appointed to study the conditions in Colorado Springs.

The city health officer is urging that if a new contract is made providing for the collection of the garbage by private parties, as at present, a stipulation that the garbage be sterilized before it is fed to swine, be included. Final decision in the matter has not been made.

After much discussion, the council went on record in favor of the scheme of the Denver Motor club for an enduring run through Colorado next spring. It is the plan for the various cities about the state to contribute for prizes for the winners of the contest. It is argued that as a result of the run, motorists will become acquainted with the advantages of Colorado for automobile touring.

A Good Investment.

W. D. Magill, a well-known merchant of Whitewater, Wis., bought a stock of Chamberlain's medicine so as to be able to supply them to his customers. After receiving them he was himself taken sick and says that one small bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy was worth more to him than the cost of his entire stock of these medicines. For sale by all dealers.
